Little magazines remain controversial but are a healthy and essential force against regimentation, conformity, convention and TV values. They can be characterized by: imagination and/or insanity, independence and/or incoherence, anger and/or art, originality and/or optimism, pessimism and/or profanity, experimentation and/or eroticism, but never by dullness and/or lifelessness. If you can read, patronize at least one -- there has to be one to your taste. If not, start one.
